

FACTIONS

Each set is composed of the following:

A Faction token This token is placed on the storm track around the board, to indicate where this player is seated.

On the backside of the token is a "pass"-icon, indicating this faction is no longer able/willing take actions this phase.

A Faction Sheet Describing each Faction's Advantages.
Reference for their troops & leader strengths.
Reference for their karama effects & FAQ.

Leader discs Each disc shows a leader and their fighting strength.

Leader traitor cards Every leader disc should have a traitor card representing the leader disc.

Troop tokens A total of 20 tokens.
Troops tokens can be multi-sided.
Some factions have multiple types of Troop tokens.

Starting Spice This should match the starting Spice specified on the faction sheet.

Faction specific items Some factions will have unique items, such as a Kwisatz Haderach token for house Atreides.

All block of each player set have the same color for easy identification.

And the following factions are available in the expansion:

